By Bl. Michael Sopoćko, from his memoirs:

The Image of Jesus, "the Divine Mercy", is Our Lord as He appeared to the apostles in the Cenacle after His Resurrection. In front of the apostles, He instituted the Sacrament of Penance with the following words: "Peace be with you!

As the Father has, sent me, I am sending you." And with that he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit, whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven; whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." (Jn 20:21-23)

"From that day forth, God's Divine Mercy, through reconciliation, was available to all sinners throughout the world."

"I SHALL SING FOREVER THE LORD'S MERCY" (Ps 89 [88])

In his second encyclical, Dives In Misericordia (Rich in Mercy), Pope Saint John Paul II offers an extended meditation on the mystery of God's mercy, which he calls "the greatest of the attributes and perfections of God" (Dives in misericordia, 13). He returned to this theme throughout his pontificate:

As a gift to humanity, which sometimes seems bewildered and overwhelmed by the power of evil, selfishness, and fear, the Risen Lord offers His love that pardons, reconciles, and reopens hearts to love.

It is a love that converts hearts and gives peace. How much the world needs to understand and accept Divine Mercy!

Lord, who reveals the Father's love by Your death and Resurrection, we believe in You and confidently repeat to You today: Jesus, I trust in You, have mercy upon us and upon the whole world.

—Pope John Paul II, Regina caeli message for Divine Mercy Sunday, April 3, 2005
